

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF OREGON

SUMMARY OF CHANGES IN 12/1/18 LOCAL RULES FROM 12/1/17 PUBLICATION

Rule	Summary of Change
1001-1(e)	The practice tips from the Oregon State Bar Debtor-Creditor Section website regarding local bankruptcy rules and forms have not developed or been used as originally anticipated, and they will be removed from the section website. As such, LBR 1001-1(e), referencing these practice tips, was removed.
1006-1(c)	Clarification on payment procedures after a dishonored (NSF) check.
1016-1(a)	Adds a requirement for chapter 11, 12, or 13 cases to address the inquiry mandated by FRBP 1016 and other issues, for example the financial management course for individual debtors.
1017-2(b)	Explains how the court will treat motions to dismiss by debtors in chapter 12 or 13 cases.
2002-1(i)(2)	For entities requesting a preferred noticing address under §342(f), the name and website where such requests are to be made has been updated.
2016-1(e)(1)	Non-material editorial revision.
2016-1(e)(2)	For chapter 13 postconfirmation supplemental compensation applications, states a presumptively reasonable compensation of $100 for preparation of each LBF 1307.
4003-2(b)	Clarifies the applicable LBFs for lien avoidance motions.
5077-1(b)(1)	Reflects moving the list of approved court transcriptionists from LBF 335, which will be retired, to the court's website.
5077-1(c)	Places restrictions on who may prepare transcripts offered into evidence.
7005-1(b)(1)	Eliminates "paper copy" language to support and allow the practice of having certain attachments (such as the mailing list) only attached to the court-filed document.
7005-1(b)(2)	Notes that a certificate of service for all documents, including LBFs and official forms, should include a mailing list for those served using paper.
7056-1(a)(1)	Removes redundant language regarding the filing of summary judgment briefs and concise statements of material facts.
7056-1(c)(1)	For the concise statement of material facts, provides option of referring to numbered paragraphs rather than pages and line numbers, and emphasizes that citations should be made with particularity.
7067-1(a)(1)	Removes the requirement that motions for deposits into the court's registry fund include an estimation of the length of time that the money will remain in the court.
9011-4(b)	Removes language regarding electronic signatures, which is now incorporated into a new subsection (c).

9011-4(c)	New; revises the electronic signature requirements formerly found in Rule 9011-4(b) into three categories. The third category is designed to accommodate existing and emerging state and district court practice where practitioners can authorize affixing their signature by email.
9013-1(b)	Requires most motions not on LBFs to include a notice preceding the motion that specifies an objection deadline and includes other information set forth in the rule.
9019-1(a)	Aligns bankruptcy court practice regarding settlement conferences more closely with the district court..
