Answers, Counterclaims, Crossclaims, and Third-Party Complaints

Introduction & Notes on First Filings

This document provides information regarding how to file answers, counterclaims, crossclaims, and third-party complaints in adversary proceedings using ECF.

FRBP 7012(b) statement of consent requirement

When preparing pleadings, keep in mind that FRBP 7012(b) requires that the filing state whether the pleader consents to entry of final orders or judgment by the bankruptcy court.

First Filings & Statement re Party's Address

Answers, counterclaims, crossclaims, and third-party complaints are often the first filings by a party in an adversary proceeding. Per LBR 7004-1(d), on the day of the first filing by a party in an adversary proceeding, that party must also file an LBF ADV-A, Statement re Party's Address, with that party's preferred service address using the Statement re Party's Address [Requires LBF ADV-A - 12/1/24] event under the Notices/Miscellaneous menu.
